

ARTICLE APPEARED
ON PAGE 20

U.S. NEWS & WORLD REPORT
24 November 1980

Washington Whispers

Among the first heads to roll in the Reagan era will be that of Adm. Stansfield Turner, director of the Central Intelligence Agency. Friends say Reagan will turn to Vice President-elect George Bush, a former CIA chief himself, for advice on a replacement for Turner.